

STEPPING HEAVENWARD

Elizabeth Prentiss

Stepping Heavenward* (version 2)

by Elizabeth Prentiss (1818-1878)

"How dreadfully old I am getting! Sixteen!" Thus begins the lifelong diary of young Katherine as she pours out her hopes, dreams, and spiritual journey on the pages of her dear, old journal. Whimsical and charming Katherine is engagingly candid about her character flaws and her desire to know God. As you listen to her share her heart through these journal entries, you will be amazed and delighted by the depth of her character and the womanly wisdom and godliness she develops over the years. From the agonies of being a teenager to the delicate balancing act between being a wife/mother/daughter/neighbor, it is easy to relate to Katherine's triumphs and trials whether you are 16 or 60. Listen to her unforgettable story set in the early 1800's as you are encouraged to "step heavenward," and don't be surprised if you find yourself recommending it to all of your friends and family!

Total running time: 9:49:19

Read by Theresa L. Downey

Cover design by Kathryn Delaney
Portrait of Misses Mary and Emily McEuen (detail of Mary), by Thomas Sully (1823)

Elizabeth Prentiss

STEPPING HEAVENWARD